Open Discussion

Jeff Keller Talk about having our own domain for our website and the cost of about $14.00 per year. He also explained having the upgraded version of the web-site and the cost per year. It is cheaper to pay up front for 3 years then to pay by the year. Jeff Vance also noted that this would be perfect timing so that we can put out a notice of the new website address with the bills. www.sgfdvt.org
